

Meet the Housing Ombudsman EVENT

If you are an Islington tenant or leaseholder living in a council or housing association property, find out more about the Housing Ombudsman and how they can help you.

When: 1pm – 2pm, Thursday 30 March

Where: Town Hall, Upper Street, London N1 2UD or online via Zoom

Tickets: to book your free online or in-person ticket, please go to:
https://HousingOmbudsman_TownHall.eventbrite.co.uk
https://HousingOmbudsman_online.eventbrite.co.uk

Places are limited to attend in person. The event will be recorded.

Richard Blakeway, the Housing Ombudsman for England, will be speaking at this event. You will have the chance to ask Richard questions on all aspects of the Housing Ombudsman service. If you are attending in person you can ask questions on the day. If you are attending online you can submit your questions in advance.

The Housing Ombudsman is a government organisation who can help if you have a complaint that you don't think has been dealt with well by your housing provider, or if you're unhappy with the outcome.

Find out more: www.housing-ombudsman.org.uk

ISLINGTON
For a more equal future